IGP VAUCLUSE - LE TRIPORTEUR ROSÉ

The Triporteur is a humoristic movie made in 1957 by Jacques Pinoteau. This film revealed Darry Cowl, a comic, in a role of a candid man who rides his tricycle to Nice to attend the final of the French Football Cup to support his village. As the film, this wine invites you to a "French" way of a friendly and festive life.

TERROIR

Clay and silicious.

GRAPE VARIETIES

70% Grenache, 15% Syrah, 15% Cinsault.

WINEMAKING

Destalking, direct-pressing. Fermentation at low temperature 14 to 16° C in stainless. Early bottling at the end of the winter to preserve the freshness and aromatics.

AGEING

Bottled in early spring to preserve maximum freshness and aromatic intensity.

TASTING NOTES

This dry Rosé wine has a beautiful pale pink colour. This wine is very aromatic with intense red fruit aromas and a mineral freshness. In the mouth, the controlled acidity combined with the citrus aromas add more freshness and gives the wine a perfect balance with the red fruits and white flowers.

TASTING ADVICES

Serve at 10°-12°C

FOOD PAIRINGS

It will pair with fish dishes, summer salads, as well as grilled meats and many other type of Provençal style dishes. Also perfect by itself as an aperitif.
